

Andrew Loheit-Stewart

It is our pleasure to announce Andrew Loheit-Stewart as our April Rider of the Month. Andrew's positive attitude and perseverance makes him a valuable member of our classroom family. He is a hard worker who never gives up no matter how difficult the task. He is also an amazing friend and the first to lend a helping hand. Congratulations Andrew! We are so proud of you!

Connor Ross

I am proud to announce Connor Ross as our Rider of the Month. Connor has worked incredibly hard this year and has made huge gains. His positive energy and helpful personality make him an excellent addition to our classroom. He is my go-to helper, and always does so with a smile on his face. Connor participates in classroom discussions enthusiastically and can always be counted on to answer questions, help his peers, and lead discussions. He is a great friend to all and truly represents what a Rider of the Month should be. Congratulations, Connor! Keep up the great work!

Alanni Heusdens

We are pleased to announce that Alanni Heusdens is our pick for this month's Rider of the Month.

Alanni is by nature reserved and very quiet, but we have watched her step out of her comfort zone and become a more active participant in class discussions and activities. She is a top notch student who puts effort into everything she does. She has excellent work/study habits and completes all her work in a timely manner.

Alanni is responsible and can be counted on to complete any task we assign to her. Most importantly, Alanni is a very loyal friend. She looks out for her friends and is always there to help them. She is especially supportive of students with special needs and goes out of her way to support them by including them in her small group work and making sure they are where they need to be when a large group discussion is happening.

Congratulations, Alanni!

Alexander Bost

I am pleased to announce Alexander Bost as my pick for Rider of the Month. Alex comes to school each day ready to learn and tackles challenges with a positive attitude. He consistently shows respect to both his peers and teachers. He is compassionate and never says an unkind word to others. Alex is always willing to lend a helping hand. At the end of each school day, Alex takes on the responsibility to stay behind for a few extra minutes to make sure our classroom is clean. He exemplifies what it means to be a Rider. Congratulations, Alex!

Ashton Dewey

Ashton Dewey is our April Rider of the month. Ashton shows up consistently ready to work for the day. He is engaged in class and enthusiastically participates in daily lessons. He is an extremely hard worker and aims to do his best at what is asked of him. He is a strong role model for his peers with his proven perseverance toward difficult assignments. He also is very respectful to his teachers and peers. Well deserved Ashton! Keep up the great work!

Shanik Cruz

It is our pleasure to celebrate Shanik Cruz as our April Rider of the month. Shanik displays an excellent work ethic and is a role model within the classroom. She is always volunteering and willing to go above and beyond our expectations. Her personality is infectious and she is a pleasure to be around. Keep up the good work, Shanik.

Carlitos Rivera

Team 7 is pleased to announce that Carlitos Rivera was selected for Rider of the month for April. Carlitos was able to improve his grades in all of his classes in April and excel on his projects, tests and classwork. Carlitos is always happy to participate in class discussions and has very good insight into the lessons that are being taught. Carlitos also is mature beyond his years and is well liked by all of his classmates. He also exhibits strength in the face of adversity and challenges that he is presented with. Carlitos is always respectful of his teachers and fellow students. For these reasons and many more, we are proud to have Carlitos on our team. Keep up the good work and congratulations!

Annabelle Prestipino

Team Seven is proud to announce that Annabelle Prestipino was selected as the Rider of the Month for April. Annabelle is kind and caring and always inclusive of others. She shows empathy and compassion towards all students. Annabelle is a hard worker. She strives to do her best in all academic areas. Annabelle, also contributes valuable insight into class discussions. For these reasons and many more we are so proud to have Annabelle on our team. Congratulations Annabelle on being the April's Rider of the Month. Congratulations and keep working hard!

Darien Loheit

Team 7/8 is excited to announce that our April Rider of the Month is Darien Loheit. All year long, Darien has been quietly putting in the work needed to be ready for high school. Darien has demonstrated maturity and a work ethic that sets a great example for his peers. Darien's teachers describe him as kind, polite and engaged in class. He can work with anyone, has a great sense of humor and always has his work done, and done well. We see great things in your future Darien! Congratulations.

Marilyn Lopez

Team 7/8 is proud to announce that Marilyn Lopez is our April Rider of the Month. Marilyn exhibits all of the qualities of an Ichabod Crane Rider. She is so helpful to her teachers and peers! Marilyn doesn't need to be asked to assist someone in need, she just jumps right in! Marilyn is a hard working student who is motivated to do well. She cares about her academics and will work with anyone. Marilyn is warm and friendly with everyone. We are so proud and grateful to have you on the team. Congratulations!

Charlotte Pelizza

Team 8 is so happy to have Charlotte Pelizza on the team this year and we see all the ways she exemplifies what it means to be an ICC Rider each day! Charlotte excels in academics and athletics. Her sense of responsibility to her commitments helps her success. Charlotte is a great team player in both as well. She works to support her peers and teammates. Charlotte also seeks feedback to constantly improve. On top of this, she has a fantastic sense of humor! Thank you for being awesome Charlotte!

Julia Fancher

Team 8 is proud to recognize Julia Fancher as our Rider of the Month. It has been awesome to see her incredible growth from the beginning of 7th grade to almost the end of 8th grade! Julia has worked hard to improve her effort and progress in all areas! She balances her sports and schoolwork. We admire and appreciate her conscientiousness, focus, and sense of responsibility! Keep up the great work Julia!
